JIM THOMPSON AUTUMN 2025 COLLECTION

A return to nature...

The Jim Thompson Autumn 2025 Collection signals a return to nature, embracing playful earth tones, rich textures, and refined botanical motifs. Presented across five series, Earthly Elation, Flora & Fauna, Warm Days I & II, Sasina (Handwoven Thai Silk) and Terra Reverie wallcoverings marks the first collection envisioned under Vichada ‘Dao’ Sitakalin since her appointment as Creative Director for the Home Furnishings Department in 2024.

Rooted in her deep appreciation for the natural world, Vichada translates her connection to the environment into a collection that celebrates organic beauty and artistry, offering a fresh perspective on Jim Thompson’s enduring legacy.

“I draw inspiration from tropical gardens, lush botanicals, and nature’s dynamic contrasts, exploring scale, geometry, and textures. I love pairing and layering patterns to build rich, intriguing compositions that capture the vibrancy of nature,” says Vichada ‘Dao’ Sitakalin.

The collection combines bold jacquards and luxurious velvets with delicate prints, playful embroideries, and soft, textured plains crafted for effortless mixing and matching. Motifs inspired by nature such as palm fronds, bamboo textures, and rustic weaves harmonize with geometric patterns, creating a balanced dialogue between bold expressions and delicate accents.

Earthy tones anchor vibrant accents, establishing a sense of light, depth, and warmth. This is nature reimagined; spirited, tactile, and effortlessly refined.

EARTHLY ELATION

Rooted in the raw and rustic beauty of nature, Earthly Elation draws on tones and textures inspired by rocks, bark, moss, and leaves. The palette is grounded in earthy neutrals, while the forms echo natural geometry and ethnic influences as plaits, plains, stripes, and checks reimagined in shifting scales.
