Lizzo Unveils its New Collections: Textiles that Engage in Dialogue with Space

Each year, our collections are born from a deep reflection on how we inhabit spaces and how textiles can transform them. At Lizzo, we believe design goes beyond the visual: it is emotion, memory and experience. That is why our fabrics are conceived as living elements, capable of connecting architecture, nature and atmosphere.

The new collections explore the balance between aesthetics and functionality, between indoors and outdoors, between the timeless and the contemporary. Inspired by serene gardens, open galleries and historic theatres, they give shape to textiles that bring character, comfort and sensitivity to the spaces they inhabit. Fabrics designed to live with light, climate and the passage of time, accompanying everyday life with elegance and authenticity.

Because at Lizzo we continue to create fabrics with soul, fabrics that awaken the senses and transform spaces into settings where design and emotion meet.

Echo

Unique Textures with Character and Mystique

The Echo collection is conceived as a tribute to the timeless grandeur of historic theatres, spaces rich in history, elegance and emotion. Its inspiration lies in their majestic atmosphere, in the echo of voices and music that still seem to resonate among seats, curtains and centuries-old chandeliers.

Jacquards, velvets and distinctive textures merge with the design to dress interiors with inspiration and a sense of mystique.
